Information received that the Carew Phone box repainting has now been deferred to 2023 . This is very disappointing as it had been agreed that the repainting would be undertaken between April and September this year. The door has been repaired/replaced.

Stop and Chat Bench update Planning department has informed that following completion of the County's grass cutting contracts, the work on the plinths for the Stop and Chat Benches already in place will commence. County Councillor reiterated that the Old Bridge at Milton is on the CADW list and it may be that permission needs to be sought in the first instance.

Update on bringing broadband to Carew - noted

Training dates from OVW for September - Councillors to let the Clerk know which courses they wish to attend.

PARISH ENVIRONMENT GROUP REPORT

Chair reported on the Working Party meets since last meeting -

Further stream cleaning at Milton , Litter pick though Birds Lane up to the Carew Roundabout where 4 bags of litter were collected and Flemish chimney spruce up. It was suggested that local resident specialising in building renovation be contacted regarding the pointing of the Flemish Chimney and Chair will make this contact.

Also scoping visit was made to the Old Picnic Site by the Ford to look at the work needed to clear this area. It was agreed to wait until the Autumn for this.

COUNTY COUNCILLORS REPORT -

County Councillor Thomas will attend the Carew Newton Cemetery to apply weedkiller to the Ashes Area and survey the block work and report back to the Community Council.

County Councillor Thomas had forwarded the temporary road closures along Butts Lane to West Williamston. Clerk to await the formal notice from PCC and forward it on to relevant parties.
