

THE HERBERT PROTOCOL

Safe & Found

DO YOU CARE FOR SOMEONE WHO HAS DEMENTIA AND WORRY THAT THEY MAY GO MISSING?

The Herbert Protocol is a national scheme which encourages carers, family members or friends to compile valuable information which could be used in the event of a vulnerable person going missing.

This information assists police in locating the person as quickly as possible.

The Herbert Protocol could give you peace of mind, knowing that vital information is readily available in case it is needed in an emergency.

Download the form and find out more at:- www.dyfed-powys.police.uk

Contact 101 for information or text if you are Deaf, hard of hearing or speech impaired.

The forms are also available from your local Neighbourhood Policing Team.
